OLE MISS SOCCER STADIUM

The Ole Miss Soccer Stadium stands as a beacon for success on the Oxford campus. Since the complex was christened on Sept. 28, 1997, in a regionally televised game against Alabama, the Rebels have been victorious in nearly 70 percent of their home matches, posting an impressive 145-59-26 mark through 2019.

In the last five years alone, just over 43,000 fans have crossed through the gates at the complex, averaging 816 fans per game in that stretch. In those five years, Ole Miss ranked no lower than 43rd in total attendance, and reached as high as No. 24 in 2015 (11,087).

Thanks to the tremendous fan support in the last five years, the Rebels have won 34 games on their home pitch. Dating back to the 2010 season when current head coach Matthew Mott arrived, Ole Miss has amassed 65 home wins, and greeted 82,000-plus fans through the gates.

In fact, 13 of the top-20 crowds in program history have come under Mott's tenure, including seven of the top-10 crowds all-time. The Rebels have posted a top-10 crowd in four of the last six seasons, including the most fans ever at an Ole Miss soccer game, 1,857 vs. Mississippi State on Oct. 21, 2018.

In terms of facility improvement, plenty of upgrades have taken place to keep the venue near the top of the league. Prior to 2011, a new playing surface was installed, before improvements were again made prior to the 2013 season giving the Rebels one of the top fields in the SEC.

Helping to provide the perfect environment for collegiate soccer, upgrades were again made prior to the 2016 season to the graphics and video elements of the stadium. In a campus-wide project improvement from Daktronics, the venue received a high-definition board, which stands as one of the largest in the SEC.

With seating for over 1,500 spectators, the stadium is located directly behind the Gillom Sports Center, which underwent major renovations in 2017, including a new locker room and coaches offices.

The 2002 season was a momentous one for Ole Miss Soccer Stadium, as it was not only the site of the SEC Tournament, but also underwent one of its first facelifts. A two-story brick building was constructed, supplying a three-room media area on the top floor and new concessions and restrooms on the bottom, facing the outside of the stadium.

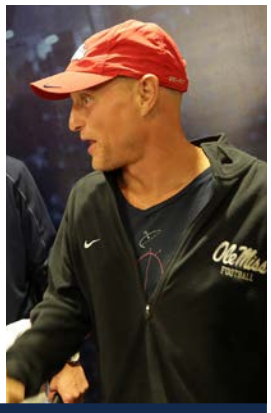
OXFORD, MISSISSIPPI

Touted as the "Cultural Mecca of the South," creativity abounds in Oxford as musicians, artists and writers alike find inspiration in Oxford's rich history, small-town charm and creative community. Nobel Prize winning author William Faulkner made his home here and many have followed in his footsteps. Oxford is also known for its exceptional culinary experiences at the many restaurants, from down-home cooking to upscale creations.

"The boys were extremely excited to come to Oxford. I think as a ballclub, with our players and all of the parents talking, I think we are falling in love with Oxford, the people here, how we are being treated and the hospitality. I think we are going to have a lot of people rooting for Ole Miss in every sport down the road after the experience they have given us here."

- Mike Gambino, Boston College baseball coach (at the 2016 NCAA Oxford Regional)



Ole Miss sporting events regularly attract such celebrities as movie stars Morgan Freeman and Woody Harrelson.

In addition to the popular Double Decker Arts Festival that brings thousands of visitors to Oxford each April, the town's thriving music scene has welcomed such acts as Snoop Dogg, Willie Nelson, B.B. King, Brad Paisley, Zac Brown Band, Thomas Rhett, Three 6 Mafia, Jason Isbell and Wilco. Artists that have recorded at local Sweet Tea Studios include the Counting Crows, Gavin DeGraw, Ben Folds, the Hives, Jars of Clay and Modest Mouse. Oxford's Lyric has been named one of the top 100 music club venues in the world by Pollstar, the leading concert industry trade publication.

MATT MOTT

RUN DOWN

In 11 seasons as the leader of Ole Miss soccer, head coach Matt Mott has built the Rebel program into a side consistently competing for a spot at the top of the table in the fiercely competitive SEC but also a force to be reckoned with on the national landscape.

Of the nine total NCAA appearances in the history of Ole Miss soccer, five have come since Mott took the reins as the second head coach in the program's history in 2010, including three second round appearances and two trips to the Sweet 16.

During his tenure at Ole Miss, Mott has seen his players receive five All-American nods, 13 all-region awards, 19 All-SEC laurels, six SEC All-Freshman picks, seven Academic All-American selections and had three players drafted into the professional ranks with the NWSL.

During the fall 2020 season with the college sports landscape flipped on its head, Mott's Rebels adapted and rolled with the punches. Playing an eight-match regular season featuring strictly SEC competition, the Rebels rebounded from a slow offensive input to begin the season to finish strong, ultimately garnering a 4-5-0 record to tie for sixth in the league table. The Rebs finished the regular season with a flourish, recording back-to-back ranked wins over No. 14 Georgia and No. 13 Vanderbilt. Building on the momentum, the Rebels returned in the spring and were off an running. Ole Miss swept its six non-conference matches, including a resounding 3-1 win in the derby matchup with Memphis, before making plenty of noise in the NCAA Tournament. Matching the deepest run in program-history, the Rebels advanced to the Sweet 16 with back-to-back penalty shootout wins over Bowling Green and No. 8 national seed USC before bowing out to No. 6 Duke with a 10-6-2 record for the season.

For its efforts, Ole Miss was well represented in terms of postseason awards. For the first time ever, the Rebels garnered two United Soccer Coaches All-American selections in goalkeeper Ashley Orkus and forward/midfielder Channing Foster, with Orkus also being tabbed to the TopDrawerSoccer.com Best XI First Team. The duo was also joined by midfielder Haleigh Stackpole as United Soccer Coaches All-South Region honorees. Additionally, Orkus was a unanimous selection for the SEC Goalkeeper of the Year and was named First Team All-SEC, an honor also bestowed upon Foster. Meanwhile, senior defender Chanel Thomas was recognized for her excellence both on and off the pitch as the SEC Co-Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

Ole Miss completed another successful season in 2019, finishing the year with a 10-7-3 record, including a 3-4-3 mark in league play and a 6-1-2 record at home. The Rebels qualified for the SEC Tournament for the fifth straight year. Ole Miss went on the road and retained the Magnolia Cup for a sixth-straight year, extending its record run. The Rebs also earned a 3-2 win over No. 19 Florida, the first win over the Gators since 2009 and just the third overall. The Rebels also won the rematch with Mississippi State in the SEC Tournament First Round, the program's first win in the conference tournament since 2013.

The 2018 Rebels experienced one of the most successful seasons in recent memory, posting a 13-8-1 overall record and finishing tied for third in the SEC with a 6-3-1 mark in league play. Among the regular season highlights were a pair of top-10 wins over No. 9 Auburn and No. 7 Vanderbilt as well as a 2-0 victory over No. 25 Mississippi State to maintain the Magnolia Cup for a record fifth-straight year. The Rebels earned a bid to the NCAA tournament in consecutive seasons for the first time in program-history, earning a 2-1 win at No. 25 Clemson before bowing out to No. 1 Stanford in the Second Round. In all, Ole Miss earned four wins over ranked opponents.

Under Mott's tutelage, Cece Kizer wrapped up one of the most heralded careers in Rebel soccer in 2018. The attacker finished as Ole Miss' all-time leader in career goals and points, breaking both records as part of a two-goal effort to lead the Rebs to a 3-2 come-from-behind victory on the road at No. 9 Auburn. Kizer concluded the regular season as the second player in SEC-history to lead the league in both goals and assists. The native Kansan put a bow on her career as a two-time All-American and a three-time all-region and All-SEC honoree.

2018 also saw the end of four-year starting goalkeeper Marnie Merritt's Ole Miss career, who under Mott became one of the all-time great Rebels to protect the goal. Merritt finished littered throughout the program record book, ranking second all-time in career saves (277), shutouts (21) and wins (40), while posting the sixth-lowest career goals against average at Ole Miss at 1.31.

The 2017 edition of Mott's Rebel squad was one of the highest scoring teams in the nation, ranking third in the country at 2.70 goals per game. Ole Miss scored 54 goals on the season, the fourth-highest scoring season in program-history. The Rebels finished the season 10-7-3, earning a bid to the NCAA Championships for the third time in five seasons.

The Rebels featured one of the top scoring duos in the country in Kizer and Channing

Foster, tying for the second most goals scored in 2017 between two teammates with 28. Kizer completed one of the most decorated seasons in the history of Rebel soccer, earning United Soccer Coaches Third Team All-American honors in addition to First Team All-SEC laurels, while Foster was tabbed to the SEC All-Freshman Team in addition to receiving a Second Team All-SEC nod.

In 2015, the Rebels reach heights never seen before in Oxford, advancing to the NCAA Sweet 16 for the first time in school history and achieving the program's highest-ever national ranking of No. 12 midway through the season. Following the campaign, the Rebels finished No. 16 in the postseason poll, their highest ever postseason ranking.

The 2015 campaign saw Ole Miss knock off back-to-back top-10 opponents, which helped surge the team up the polls. Following a 1-0 victory in just the second-ever home NCAA Championship match, the Rebels went on to advance past No. 7 Clemson on penalty kicks in the second round of the NCAA Championships.

Under Mott's guidance, the Rebels tallied nine shutouts, including the two versus No. 10 Auburn and No. 10 South Carolina. The 14 wins tied for the third-most in school history, while the seven SEC victories tied for the second-most in school history.

After being picked 10th in the SEC Preseason Poll, Mott led the program to a third-place finish in the league. A record 11,087 fans showed up in attendance at the Ole Miss Soccer Stadium in 2015, also a record for the program, which ranked top-25 nationally.

Just two years prior, the Rebels posted a 16-win season, marking the most wins in a single season for Ole Miss. Ole Miss also hosted its first NCAA Tournament match in school history, defeating Jackson State 9-0 in the opening-round game. For his efforts Mott was named the NSCAA South Region Coach of the Year.

In his third season at the helm of the program, Mott continued to move the program forward with a return to the SEC Tournament as Ole Miss made its first tournament appearance since 2009 and advanced to the quarterfinals with a shutout victory over LSU in the opening round. The shutout victory was one of eight for the Rebels on the season.

The squad posted an 8-0 start to the season, the best in program history, and included a stretch of four consecutive shutout wins and 483 minutes of shutout soccer to also set a school record for consecutive shutout minutes by the Rebels.

Juniors McCalla and Souza garnered recognition for their efforts on the field as the duo tied for the league lead in goals (13) and points (33) on the way to All-SEC accolades. Souza was named a 2013 NCAA Women's Division I All-South Team selection, while McCalla was named the SEC Offensive Player of the Year and a Third Team All-America selection by CollegeSportsMadness.com.

In 2011, Mott's team saw improvement from the 2010 season as the team finished the year winning its final three SEC games of the year including a 2-0 win over Mississippi State for the Magnolia Cup. The Rebels, who ended the year 8-10-1 overall (4-7 SEC), scored 11 more goals in 2011 than 2010.

During his first season with the Rebels, Mott led his program to a 7-9-4 overall record and a 3-5-3 mark in SEC play. During the season, Mott's team knocked off No. 25 Auburn on the road, 2-1, and recorded a 0-0 double overtime tie against No. 18 Georgia.

Before taking over the Rebel program, Mott was the top assistant coach at the University of Texas from 2006-10, helping the Longhorns to three NCAA Tournament appearances, including back-to-back Sweet Sixteen berths in 2006 and 2007. The 2007 squad rose as high as No. 1 in the national rankings. Working with the goalkeepers and defenders, Mott helped guide UT to a school record for lowest goals against average (0.64 in 2008) and several other defensive records during his tenure.

No stranger to the Southeastern Conference, Mott assisted Karen Hoppa at Auburn from 1999-2005. He was promoted from assistant to assistant head coach to associate head coach during his time on the Plains and helped the Tigers to four straight NCAA Tournaments and four straight SEC West titles from 2001-04. He was named the AFLAC National Assistant Coach of the Year in 2002 when Auburn claimed the SEC overall championship. As Auburn's recruiting coordinator, Mott brought in six nationally ranked signing classes and helped develop several players to All-SEC and All-America honors.

The Norwood, N.Y., native served as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Central Florida, for four years under Hoppa prior to his stint at Auburn. While there, the Golden Knights won three Trans Atlantic Athletic Conference Championships and earned an NCAA Tournament berth in 1998.

Before UCF, Mott was the head women's coach at Division III Hilbert College in Hamburg, N.Y., where he became the winningest coach in school history during his tenure from 1991-94. He was also the goalkeepers coach for the men's team at Hilbert during that time.

Mott obtained a bachelor's degree in general studies and a minor in criminal justice from UCF in 2000 and also earned an Associate of Science degree in 1994 from Erie Community College in Buffalo, N.Y. Before college, Mott spent four years in the U.S. Coast Guard where he played and coached with the Coast Guard's select team in Portsmouth, Va.

Mott holds a National "B" Coaching License from the United States Soccer Federation. In addition to his college coaching positions, he has served as the goalkeepers coach for the USYSA Region III Olympic Development Program team since 2003.

He is married to the former Jennifer Swartz. They have two sons, Dean and Will, and a daughter, Tacie.

ROB THOMPSON

RUN DOWN

Rob Thompson, a pivotal member of Ole Miss' success in recent history, has served alongside Mott in all 11 seasons in charge of goalkeepers and was promoted to the position of Associate Head Coach following the 2014 season.

Behind Thompson's tutelage during the 2020 fall season, Rebel keeper Ashley Orkus built upon her inaugural season between the posts for the Rebels to rise to the national spotlight. The junior shot stopper led the SEC in total saves and shutouts while posting the third highest save percentage in the league on the way to a unanimous SEC Goalkeeper of the Year selection and a First Team All-SEC nod. Orkus shined brightest under the big lights, making seven saves on penalties during Ole Miss' run to the NCAA Sweet 16. Having garnered the nation's attention, Orkus earned TopDrawer Soccer Best XI First Team and United Soccer Coaches Third Team All-America laurels. In addition to her excellence on the defensive end of the pitch, Orkus also contributed heavily to the Rebel offense. The Vestavia Hills, Alabama, native dished out three assists on the year, becoming the first keeper in league history to register multiple assists in a match in the Rebels' 4-3 win over No. 14 Georgia.

The 2018 season marked the end of Rebel keeper Marnie Merritt's lauded career between the posts. Under Thompson's direction, Merritt became a four-year starter at Ole Miss, finishing her career ranked second in school history in saves (277), shutouts (21) and wins (40). Additionally, the Hough High School product's 1.31 career goals against average is the sixth-lowest at Ole Miss.

Thompson helped guide the Rebels to their first-ever NCAA Sweet 16 appearance in program history in 2015. Under the assistance of Thompson, Ole Miss surged to a national ranking of No. 12 midway through the year, its highest rank in school history. The Rebels also closed the book on the season as the No. 16 team in the nation in the postseason poll, the best finish in the history of the program.

Thompson's teachings were apparent in 2015 as the Rebels pitched nine shutouts, including two versus top-10 teams in No. 10 Auburn and No. 10 South Carolina.

Merritt, who made her collegiate debut in the 2015 campaign, made it a good one under Thompson's direction. Thompson's instructions paid off as Merritt totaled seven individual shutouts, fourth-most in a single season in school history.
She tallied 93 saves, which were also the fourth-most in any Rebel season, and ranks in the top-10 in career goals against average, saves, wins and shutouts after two seasons of play.

The 2013 season saw the Rebel defense help Ole Miss to a record-setting 16 wins that included 10 shutout victories behind the play of junior goalkeeper Kelly McCormick. The keeper became the winningest goalkeeper in program history, 34 victories for her career under the tutelage of Thompson.

In the 2012 season, McCormick helped the Rebels post eight shutout victories, including a stretch of four-consecutive shutouts as Ole Miss rolled to an 8-0 start to set the best start to a season in program history. In that stretch of shutouts, the McCormick and the Rebels played 483 minutes of shutout soccer, setting a new school record.

McCormick twice won SEC Defensive Player of the Week honors, helping the Rebels advance to the SEC Tournament for the 14th time in school history and the quarterfinals of the 2013 SEC Tournament with a shutout win over LSU in the opening round of the annual event.

Thompson brings high-level experience in training goalkeepers to the Rebel program. Following a two-year hiatus from college coaching for family reasons, he came back to the SEC, where he was an assistant at Georgia from 2005-08.

While in Athens, he helped lead the Bulldogs to their first NCAA Tournament berth since 2003 and just their second appearance in the SEC Tournament championship game. Georgia went 40-19-4 during his three seasons, and he helped develop goalkeeper Michelle Betos into an SEC All-Freshman pick who would go on to rank among the all-time school and conference leaders in shutouts and saves.

Thompson was an assistant at Florida State for two seasons, where he helped the Seminoles reach back-to-back NCAA Tournaments, including the 2003 College Cup Semifinals. He trained goalkeeper Joy McKenzie to All-ACC and All-Region status, while she broke several school records along the way.

A native of Grimsby, England, his extensive experience as a goalkeeper coach on the professional and collegiate levels also includes the WUSA's New York Power (2002-03), Adelphi University men (2001-02), the A-League's Long Island Rough Riders (1998-01) and Lock Haven University men and women (1995-98).

He has also been a member of the ODP Region III coaching staff since 2003.

Thompson holds bachelor's and master's degrees from Lock Haven University (Pa.), where he was a three-time all-conference and two-time all-region player in soccer. He is married to the former April Murphy of Tulsa, Oklahoma, and the couple has two sons, Michael and Liam.

JESSICA HISKEY

RUN DOWN

A former All-SEC defender for the Rebels, Jessica Hiskey has spent three seasons on Matt Mott's staff at her alma mater, helping guide the Ole Miss defense. On June 22, 2021, Hiskey was promoted to the role of Assistant Head Coach.

During her burgeoning coaching career, Hiskey's defensive crew has registered 20 clean sheets. Under hiskey's direction, the Rebel back line has also contributed to the attacking force, tallying seven goals and 13 assists during the past three seasons.

The Rebels shutout seven opponents during the 2020 season, including clean sheets in four of the last six matches of the season as Ole Miss made a run to the NCAA Sweet 16. In total the Rebels surrendered just 18 goals in 18 matches on the campaign, the fewest in a season for Ole Miss since 2009. The previous season, Ole Miss registered six clean sheets, including a pair in SEC play against Auburn and LSU. Of the 38 total matches the last two seasons, the Rebel defensive unit has held its opponent to one goal or fewer 24 times.

Hiskey played a pivotal role in Ole Miss' defensive successes in 2018. The Rebels posted seven shutouts on the season, surrendering just six goals in nine matches at the Ole Miss Soccer Stadium. The Rebels finished the regular season with three-straight shutout victories over Kentucky, No. 25 Mississippi State and No. 7 Vanderbilt. The streak was the longest in SEC play for Ole Miss since a similar three-match run in 2015. The Rebels were one of just three teams during the regular season to hold the SEC Champion Commodores without a goal.

Prior to joining the staff at her alma mater, Hiskey tested the waters of coaching during the Spring of 2016, serving as assistant coach for the Oxford Soccer Club. Playing the role of instructor and mentor for the youth squad, Hiskey also designed and implemented training sessions twice a week for the club.

After finishing her collegiate career, Hiskey became just the fourth known Rebel to sign a professional contract, joining Skövde KIK in Sweden. During her two-year stint, she helped Skövde KIK achieve its highest league finish in club-history (3rd) as well as the program's lowest goals against average for a season.

From 2012-15 Hiskey was a Stalwart for the Rebels both on the back line and at midfield, starting 74 matches and logging over 7,000 minutes on the pitch during her career. She found the back of the net 10 times in a Rebel kit, dishing out five assists.

During her senior campaign, Hiskey helped lead Ole Miss to its first-ever NCAA Sweet-16, starting all 23 contests on the year. She became the first Rebel defender to be named All-SEC since 2011, collecting Second Team honors after registering five points on two goals and one assist.

The Franklin, Tennessee native put together her most impressive offensive season as a junior in 2014, scoring six goals and adding two assists for 14 points. Of the 1,840 minutes for Ole Miss on the season, Hiskey was off the field for just 31 off them.

As a sophomore, Hiskey helped lead the Rebels to their first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2009, earning the program's first tournament win since 2003 with a 9-0 victory over Jackson State in Oxford. After missing the first nine games of the season due to a summer injury, she saw action in 15 matches, starting the final 10 games of the season. Hiskey played a part in six Rebel shutouts, scoring her lone goal against JSU in the NCAA First Round match.

Starting her Rebel career in 2012, Hiskey immediately became a fixture in the starting lineup. She started all 22 matches on the season at defender, playing the most minutes of any field player at 1,946 minutes, just six minutes behind starting goalkeeper Kelly McCormick. She played every minute of 20 matches, including each of the final 16 outings. Hiskey scored one goal and assisted on a pair, including the game winner against LSU in the Second Round of the SEC Tournament.

RICHARD BEEBE

Richard Beebe, who joined the program prior to the 2014 season for two seasons, rejoined the staff in 2017 as the Rebels' volunteer assistant coach.

In the four seasons since Beebe's return to Oxford, the Rebels have accumulated a 43-28-9 overall record, earning three bids to the NCAA Tournament, including the only two Sweet 16 runs in program history.

During Beebe's original run at Ole Miss, he helped the Rebels achieve a pair of successful seasons in 2014 and 2015. After assisting Ole Miss to a second-place finish in the SEC West during his first season, the Rebels reached even greater heights in 2015. Earning a 14-5-4 record, the Rebels advanced to the Sweet 16 for the first time in school history.

He cuts up all game film for the Rebels, helps scout opponents prior to matches, and assists in numerous roles in practice. Head coach Matt Mott, who was alerted of Beebe's work ethic through a mutual friend, called him an "unsung, absolute godsend to our program," reiterating Beebe's importance to Ole Miss soccer.

Beebe joined the Rebels after serving as an assistant coach at his alma mater, William Carey, where he was also a standout soccer player himself. As an assistant at William Carey, Beebe helped lead the women's team to the Southern States Athletic Conference (SSAC) championship in 2013 with a perfect 11-0 record in conference play and outscoring foes 53-to-6 on the season. It was the first SSAC title for William Carey.

He earned a bachelor's degree in education with a minor in biology from William Carey in 2010 and a master's degree in secondary education in 2012.

GEORGIA RUSSELL

RUN DOWN

Georgia Russell returned to the Ole Miss soccer program in June of 2019, joining head coach Matt Mott's staff as the Coordinator of Operations.

Russell had a short move across campus to the soccer offices located at the Gillom Center, having served for two years as an accountant with the Ole Miss Athletics Foundation. Russell also spent six months as a staff auditor at Ham, Langston and Brezina, LLP in Houston, Texas prior to graduating from Ole Miss in December of 2016.

Russell played for five seasons on Mott's Rebel teams from 2012-16, playing in 71 matches with 24 starts after redshirting her true freshman season. Splitting time between the back line and midfield, she finished her career with more than 2,300 minutes on the pitch, scoring twice and assisting on a pair of goals.

Also excelling off the field, Russell was named Capital One/CoSIDA Academic All-District First Team in 2013.

A native of Tupelo, Mississippi, Russell graduated from Ole Miss with a bachelor's degree in accountancy in 2015.
